NEGRO'S ATTACK CAUSES RUNAWAY; GIRL IS INJURED

Miss Georgia Oliver Painfully
Hurt While Returning
From School

BUGGY STOPPED IN ROAD BY BLACK

Frightened Horse Ran Away
And Man Made Good
His Escape

Suffering from numerous bruises
about the body, and badly frightened
from her experience Miss Georgia Oliver, aged 16, is at the home of her grandfather, Mr. Doc Suapp, in Ruddle's Mills, as a result of an attack
made upon her yesterday afternoon
by a negro who grabbed her horse,
while she was enroute to her home from Millersburg. The horse ran away and throwing her out she sustained painful, though not serious injuries.

Miss Oliver, who is a daughter of Sam Oliver, of Ruddle's Mills, was returning home from Millersburg, where she is attending school at the Millersburg Female College. When at a point between the homes of W. F.
Saunders and V. L. Barton on the Ruddle's Mills and Millersburg pike, the negro, it is alleged, jumped in front of the horse and grabbed the bit.

Frightened at the sudden attack
the animal reared and plunged and succeeded in freeing himself from the grasp of the man. He then dashed down the road at breakneck speed, Miss Oliver making every effort to check his speed until a rug in the buggy becoming fastened in the wheel caused the animal to increase his speed and soon got beyond her control. The horse ran into a ditch on the side of the road, throwing the occupant of the buggy out.

The girl was rendered partly unconscious by the fall and her injuries were so painful that she could not summon assistance, and remained where she had fallen until Mr. Hughes residing on the G. S. Allen farm, found her on the side of the road,
and taking on a fence slide which he was driving removed her to his home
where she was given every comfort and soon recovered sufficiently to tell her story.

The horse in his flight ran almost to Ruddle's Mills and was stopped near the home of James Fisher. The animal was recognized as being the one driven by Miss Oliver and several started along the road toward Millersburg in an effort to find the girl, who it was believed had met with a serious accident. The search continued for some time until she was located at the home of Mr. Hughes.

According to the story of Miss Oliver, after attempting to stop the horse
the negro climbed a fence and started across a field. He was soon lost to view. She described him as being large and heavy set, black and wore a mustache. She described his clothing and claimed to have seen him on several occasions. Immediately after the affair, which occurred about four o'clock, it was reported among the people of that neighborhood and several men set out in search of the negro, but when darkness set in they were compelled to abandon the hunt.

Mrs. Barton, wife of V. L. Barton, near whose home the attack on the girl was made, claims to have seen a strange negro going along the road a few minutes before and Mr. Barton stated that he heard a scream, but attached little importance to it.

The people of the neighborhood were considerably excited over the affair, and had the man been caught it is more than likely he would have been summarily dealt with.

It was suggested that V. K. Mulli-kin, of Lexington, be summoned to the scene with his bloodhounds, but after it was considered that snow had fallen during the intervening hours, this plan was abandoned. Residents all along the Millersburg road have been notified and given a description of the man and a sharp lookout is being kept with the hope of capturing him.

RELATIVES OF WOMAN WHO DIED HERE ARE LOCATED.

Since the death of Mrs. Mary J.
Harp, which occurred on January 14,
Coroner Rudolph Davis has been engaged in an effort to locate two sons of the deceased, who were said to reside in the West. In the personal effects of the woman were found several letters written a number of years ago to the mother by her sons and after corresponding with postmasters in several Western cities located M. K.
Harp in Casper, Wyoming, and Chas.
Harp in Whitewood, S. D. At the time of her death Mrs. Harp had several hundred dollars in the bank, besides personal effects which will be divided between the surviving children when the estate is settled.

THREE COUNTIES OBJECT OF ATTACK BY "DRY" FORCES

New Bill if Passed Will Call
For Contests in Bourbon,
Fayette and Clark

LOCAL ADHERENTS
CONFIRM REPORT

Uncertainty As From Which Angle "Drys" Will Proceed

That three counties in Kentucky,
and possibly four, will be the object of attack by the temperance forces in event of the passage of the bill before the Legislature requiring twenty-five per cent. of the voters of the county instead of twenty-five per cent.
of each precinct in the county, to call a local option election, is evidenced by local advocates of the cause of local option.

For the past several weeks there have been secret movements on the part of the prohibition leaders looking to an early local option election
simultaneously in Bourbon, Fayette, Clark and possibly Scott county, the latter county now being in the "wet" column as a result of a decision of Judge Robert L. Scout Saturday declaring void the late election held there.

The bill before the Legislature has already passed the Senate and from the information gained it is evident that it will pass the House when it comes up for consideration before that body. The dry forces feel confident that it will pass the lower branch.

The dry advocates are almost sure that if this law becomes effective,
and it is almost certain the Governor will approve the measure, that they will be able to sweep the three counties already mentioned and it is planned to hold an election in the three on the same day. This idea of having the local option on the same date in each county, it is said, is to prevent the liquor forces in one county from working in the other.

For some time past it has been known that the prohibition advocates in this city and county have been working "under cover" and awaiting for the Legislature to enact the new county option law and it is said that everything is "cocked and primed" for an early tilt with the liquor forces.

This was practically admitted yesterday when a few of the temperance people were approached on the subject, but there are other matters which makes a local option election problematical. However, it is almost certain liquor traffic will be attacked
from one angle or another.

A prominent temperance man was asked yesterday if there was anything in the report which was published in the daily papers Sunday to which he replied that the report was all truth,
but the fact that the State wide prohibition bill before the Legislature had not been acted upon, made it uncertain as to how they would proceed in the fight against liquor, which it is said, will come some time during the spring.

In the event the State-wide bill is enacted into a law, and the other bill before the body is approved, then, it is claimed by the temperance people that they will make a fight to bring about temperance all over the State,
but if this measure fails of passage,
and it being almost certain that the bill requiring only twenty-five per cent. of the voters in the county to call an election, will pass, then, they will take up the fight under the country unit law.

It is claimed of the temperance people that they are meeting with considerable encouragement along all lines and the days of the saloon in Paris, Lexington and Winchester are numbered.

That it will be obliterated in all of the three counties is almost certain from the view of the prohibitionists, but if the new law is passed one of the hardest fought battles in the history of Kentucky will be waged at the polls.

On April 11, 1907, the last local option election was held in Paris which was under the old election law, and until a few weeks ago no intimation has been made by the temperance people of their intentions to wage another fight in the city and county. In a majority of the "wets" the majority is torious by a majority of 282. Since that time the saloons have been well regulated and while it is conceded practically that the city would return
a majority for the "wts" the majority in the county against them, it is claimed by the temperance people, would more than offset it, with the result the saloons would be forced out.

The cause of the agitation in Lexington is attributed to the utter disregard of a number of disreputable saloon keepers for the Sunday closing laws, keeping open on election day and selling liquor to minors. The law-abiding wholesale and retail dealers have taken every precaution to prevent the temperance people from

AMERICANS FACE EXECUTIONERS IN JUAREZ PRISON

Cattleman Who Made Escape
Tells of Fate of Two Citizens of America

TAKEN FROM PRISON
AND SHOT TO DEATH

Another Englishman Believed
To Be Among Those
Before Firing Squad

EL PASO, Texas, February 23.—
From the dungeon of the "Foreign Prison" in Juarez, through a man who escaped death by daring and intrigue,
friends in El Paso of Gustave Bauch and Domingo Flores, both American citizens, learned definitely of their execution in Juarez.

J. J. Bacca, a New Mexican cattleman, well known on the border as a man of reliability, whose home is in Socorro, N. M., is in El Paso after an experience in the Juarez prison which,
he says, added years to his age.

Bacca was in the same cell in the underground dungeon of Villa's private foreigners' prison with Bauch and Flores.

Another man was in the same cell,
but his name Bacca could not learn.
He thinks he may have been A. R.
Curtis, an Englishman and a friend of William C. Benton.

Bacca saw Bauch, Flores and the other man taken from the prison at sunset Wednesday and heard the guards talk afterward of how the three had been shot to death, how two of them had not been killed at once,
and begged the firing squad to end their agony, and how the grave into which the three were thrown was left open for "the other American," meaning Bacca.

That night, after many ineffectual
efforts, Bacca, through outside aid, made his escape from the prison and reached El Paso, kept in hiding until the next morning, and then, pro-trated by his experience, was forced to remain in bed until today, when he started out to find Bauch's sister, Mrs. J. M. Patterson, and deliver to her the last message from Bauch.

"In a dungeon too low to permit us
to stand," said Bacca, "Bauch, Flores, the third man and I sat huddled in a circle on the floor for 25 hours without water or food, but with a good supply of Mexican cigarettes, which we smoked incessantly to make a little light while we planned in English
our escape."

Bauch wrote the name and address
of his sister on the cuff of his shirt, whence he tore off and gave me."

Bacca says once he and the three men almost made their escape by attacking the guard and knocking down several of them. That was when they were being transferred from the Cuartel to the dungeon. That same evening, he says, his three companions were taken out, and his turn was to come in the morning.

Bacca says Villa had him arrested on the street. He was in Juarez to buy several hundred cattle from the revolutionists, and seeing Villa approach he went forward to speak to the rebel leader.

It was the day the plot against Villa took place and knocking down derered his arrest. Bacca says he, Bauch and the Englishman were charged with trying to kill Villa. Do-

STUDENT SELECTED TO TEACH IN PARIS PUBLIC SCHOOL

A meeting of the School Board was held Thursday evening in the Public School building, and considerable routine business was transacted. Mr.
Eli Friedman, a member of the senior class, was elected to assist in teaching some of the freshmen classes. There is considerable overflow work in which Mr. Friedman, who is an excellent student and a very bright young man, has been assisting, so he was duly elected at this meeting to the position of regular assistant.

becoming antagonistic and have petitioned the commissioners to pass ordinances divorcing saloons from groceries and offering to help prosecute the violators of the law. This, it is said by the temperance people will have little effect in forestalling a local option election.

The condition in Winchester is not so well known, but it is expressed that the saloons there are well regulated and the saloons keepers adhere to the letter of the law.

Several meetings have been held by the local advocates of temperance and many plans discussed, but no definite course to pursue has been decided upon and this will depend entirely upon the action of the Legislature.
A petition bearing more than six hundred names, all secured in this county,
it is said, has been forwarded to Frankfort urging the passage of the State-wide prohibition bill.

WOULD PERMIT GROWER TO SELL TOBACCO IN HAND

Representative R. Y. Thomas, Jr., introduced a bill Friday permitting tobacco growers to sell unstemmed leaf tobacco in the hand in any quantity without the payment of any revenue tax. The measure also permits tobacco buyers to purchase tobacco of this kind without the payment of revenue tax, and provides that sales transactions may take place without a report to any collector of internal revenue or other Government agency. This is legislation that has several times before been sought by Kentucky members of Congress.

POOR MAN'S BANK ROUTS LOAN SHARK BUSINESS

The Atlanta Loan & Savings Co. is its official title, but everybody in Atlanta, Ga., calls it "The Poor Man's Bank."

It was founded as a protest against the loan shark, lives up to its name in spirit and act. Its basis is honesty and labor, the only capital a poor man has.

To draw money from this bank all the borrower needs do is to get three reputable persons to endorse him as honest and industrious.

On this security "the poor man's bank" will advance money for a term of 52 weeks on dollar-a-week payments.

Eight per cent. interest is charged. Each borrower, whether his loan be large or small, subscribes for one or more shares of stock, according to the amount of his loan.

This stock is hypothecated to secure the loan. At the end of the 52-week term the borrower may surrender his stock and cancel his note or he may reinvest it in bank stock. W. Woods White is its head.

Last year it made 1155 loans for a total of $150,552, and it practically put the loan shark out of business.

"DIXIANA" STOCK FARM IN FAYETTE IS SOLD FOR $50,000

Mr. John T. Hedges, well-known stock raiser and farmer of this country, purchased Tuesday at public auction "Dixiana," one of the most noted stock farms in Central Kentucky, and owned by Major J. T. Carson, and located in Fayette county, for $105,10 an acre, or a little over $50,000.

The contending bidders were Jonas Well, C. H. Berryman, C. W. Bohman, of Lexington, and C. H. Marshall, of Woodford county.

The place comprises 482 acres and a fraction, and is located six miles from Lexington, on the Briar Hill pile. It has been owned for a number of years by Major Carson, who changed the name from Briar Hill to Dixiana, and which under his management has produced quite a number of horses which have won recognition on the turf.

The purchaser will get possession of the property about March 1, and will continue it as a stock farm.

Mr. Hedges Wednesday closed a deal with Mr. Jonas Well, of Fayette county, for the purchase of the farm, but it is not known what advance in price he received over the price he paid at the auction sale.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

On Christmas Eve, 1814, Messrs. John Quincy Adams, James A. Bayard, Henry Clay, Albert Gallatin and Jonathan Russell, on behalf of the United States, and Lord Gambier, Dr. Adams and Henry Gouldburn, Esq., on behalf of Great Britain, signed the Treaty of Ghent, which ended the war between the two countries.

Shortly thereafter Mr. John Quincy Adams expressed the hope, so wonderfully realized, that the peace thus restored should be enduring, saying, "May the gates of the temple of Janus closed here never be opened during the century."

A few months later peace societies sprang into being in both America and England; and within three years, by formal agreement, the boundary line between the United States and Canada became a mere political limitation, like the peaceful boundaries separate the States of the American Union, instead of a series of fortifications between two nations mutually distrustful of one another.

Believing that the blessings that have followed in the train of the peace thus established cannot better be brought to the attention of the world at large than by a fitting celebration, the American Committee at its initial meeting, held four years ago, formulated a plan for this purpose. The proposal was soon thereafter laid before the peoples of Great Britain and the self-governing colonies of the British Empire.

The American committee was animated by a patriotic impulse and the belief that through an adequate worldwide celebration of the century of peace great good would be accomplished towards the rational settlement of international disputes. And it hoped and hopes to effect this through the creation of a sentiment which shall educate the peoples of the world to regard forbearance and mutual understanding as virtues to be cultivated by governments and nations, as well as by individuals.

The committee also considered that through the association of the peoples of many nationalities there would result increased acquaintance, friendship and mutual understanding which are essential to permanent peace.

Therefore, the undersigned, a special committee acting for the American Committee, a body whose many thousands and members are representative of every section of the United States, of every walk of life, and of every profession and calling and of the different elements from which our population is drawn, invite and urge cooperation throughout the United States, and the active, sympathetic interest of the citizens or subjects of all countries.

It is sincerely hoped that all will take part with the American Committee, or with similar committees in other lands in the preparation and execution of an adequate and fitting program that shall signalize, as no other occurrence in the past would enable us to do, the realization of Mr. Adam's prophetic wish that the twentieth century might find the peace still unbroken.

That our country has been such an active factor in this wonderful achievement prompts us to celebrate the event—for peace as well as war is an event between nations—and arouses the hope that the hundred years which have passed since the Treaty of Ghent, 1814, may be not only the precursor of a perpetual peace between Great Britain and the United States, but the promise of a broadening era of enduring peace between all nations.

ARE YOU RUN DOWN? Awaken to the Danger and Aid the Weakened Kidneys.

Kidney sickness often runs you down to the verge of collapse before you know the cause. When you seem unable to pin your mind to any task, your back aches, and you cannot do an ordinary day's work, it is time to ask yourself this question: "Are my kidneys working right?" The answer may be easily found.

Weak kidneys slacken their filtering work and the uric acid circulates with the blood, in many cases attacking brain, nerves, muscles and vital organs. Don't wait for the serious trouble—begin using Doan's Kidney Pills when you feel the first backache or first notice urinary disorders. This remedy has given new life and strength to thousands.

Proof of merit in a Paris citizen's statement.

Mrs. Hodge, 221 West street, Paris, Ky., says: "I had dizzy and nervous spells and my head and back ached, showing that my kidneys were weak. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I used them and they gave me entire relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

FOREST NOTES. Government Helps Construct Drift Fences For Stock.

In order to control the movements of sheep and cattle grazed under permits on the National forests, the government is constructing what are known as drift fences which facilitate the counting and handling of the animals. These fences also help to regulate the time when stock may enter the forests, so that sheep and cattle can be kept off in the early spring until the young grass and other forage plants have had a chance to get a start. In some cases, too, they restrict grazing to certain areas and serve either to protect some grazing grounds or to secure a complete utilization of the forage on others.

What Is a Drift Fence.

The drift fences are not enclosures, but generally extend for a long distance across the country, much like the "drift fences" or snow fences along railroad rights of way. Railroad fences, however, take their name from the fact that they serve to pile the wind-blown snow to the windward side of the track, so it will not settle in the cuts and impede traffic. The drift fences for stock keep the animals from going in certain directions, or "drifting," to use a cattleman's expression, or restrict them to specified areas for the winter and toothers for the summer. They may also prevent stock from grazing upon areas where poisonous plants are found; thus they lessen the cost of herding and prevent losses.

Examples of the use of drift fences are furnished in several built on the Dixie forest of Utah, where stock grazing is important. Five miles of drift fences were built by the government on this forest to protect the water supply of the city of St. George from contamination by forest range cattle. This, with other stretches of substantial wire fence in connection with rocky ledges, which are equally good barriers against stock, makes the southern boundary of one of the divisions of this forest stock proof, except at certain established gateways. During the coming year sixteen miles of fence is to be built across the northern part of this division. This will distinctly separate the northern range from that to the south, which is on an average some 3,000 feet higher and will be used exclusively as summer range. By keeping the stock on the separate areas until the forage on the other has had a chance to start both winter and summer range will be greatly improved and their carrying capacity increased.

Horses, Cattle and Larkspur.

Another interesting development is 4½ miles of drift fence on the Flamingo lake forest in the same State. It was built to keep cattle on the north side and horses on the south where larkspur grows in abundance. Larkspur is very poisonous to cattle, but is not eaten at all by horses. Before this fence was built, 60 cattle had died in one month, June; after it was built and the cattle were excluded from the larkspur areas there was a further loss of only 5, though July and August are considered by cattlemen in Utah the worst months for larkspur poisoning. Forest officers therefore have estimated that this fence, which cost $750, saved $2,500 in the first year it was built, and should save $4,000, or five times its cost, each season. It is said, too, that it increases the carrying capacity of the grazing district about 15 per cent.

Two other fences in the same State, costing $2,100, will, on a conservative estimate by the cattlemen, save approximately $6,000 a year.

Fences Are Co-Operative Projects.

In certain areas where the fences will greatly minimize the problems of the forest officers in handling cattle within the national forests, the cost is borne by the government. In other areas where the benefits to stockmen have been shown they are built in co-operation with the cattle owners, who pay a large part of the expense or furnish the labor. Throughout the National forest States there are cattle and sheep owners' associations which represent individuals who graze their flocks and herds upon the national forests. All differences which arise between the forest officers and the individual owners are submitted to the advisory boards of these associations, and they are therefore clearing houses for the settlement of any difficulties which may need adjustment. According to the officials of the service, these associations have practically eliminated controversies, and the officials who administer them are in perfect accord with the policies of the government. One of the evidences of this is shown in the drift fences which help both sides.

Receipts from the use of national forest resources were greatest in Arizona last year. (adv)

Dr. C. D. Marsh, of the Federal Bureau of Plant Industry is delivering a series of illustrated lectures to stockmen in the West on the subject of plants poisonous to stock.

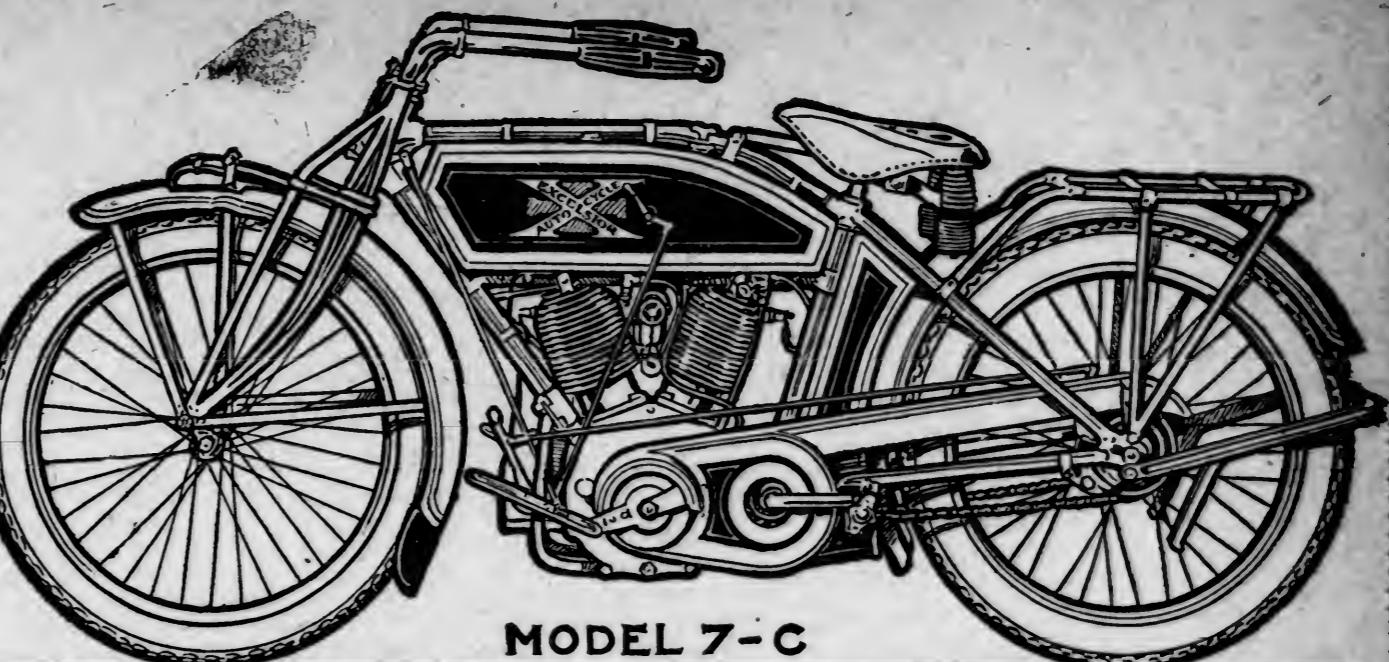

The Baltimore forest school, established in 1898 and therefore the oldest forest school in America, has been discontinued. Dr. C. A. Schenck, its director, has returned to his home in Germany.

The forest service is completing a new volume table for calculating the board contests of standing western yellow pine trees in the southwest. It is based on actual measurements of 6,000 trees.

In trying to find uses for blight-killed chestnut it has been found that it cannot be utilized for crating stone; quarry owners say that chestnut wood leaves an indelible stain on the marble or granite.

Railroads caused nearly half the forest fires in Colorado and Wyoming last year, and almost one-sixth more set by lightning. In California lightning started more than half, with railroads a comparatively insignificant cause.

STOCK AND FARM NOTES

The prejudice that formerly existed against Kentucky beef cattle at the big packing centers of the country has now disappeared, according to Sam Bell, a well-known feeder of Hardin county, who sold a drove of cattle at the St. Louis National Stock Yards this week at $8.60, the highest price of the year locally for Kentucky cattle. Mr. Bell says that a few years ago Kentucky cattle were discriminated against to some extent by killers, as the latter claimed the Blue grass State stock was too large and coarse in the brisket and foreleg and too small in the loin. Of late years, however, the Kentucky farmers have bred a high-class lot of beef cattle that now rank with the best that the Corn Belt can turn out.

LEBANON "DRYS" OPPOSE NATION-WIDE PROHIBITION

"Many of the signatures attached to petitions to me protesting against nation-wide prohibition are signed by well-known 'dry's' in my district," said Representative Ben Johnson, of Kentucky, at Washington, Friday.

"This feature has interested and impressed me. I have received some of the petitions from Lebanon, for instance, signed by men who have no use, political or personal, for persons engaged in the manufacture, distribution or use of liquor."

The Prohibition forces are demanding a vote in Congress on the theory that their amendment will pass. Hundreds of thousands of petitions against this demand have been received by Kentuckians.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" Best for Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels

Look back to your childhood days. Remember that the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they never fail to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grownups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt. (adv)

SMALL POX GUARD RUNS AMUCK AND USES PISTOL

Nathan Garrett, a negro employed as a guard over several small pox patients in the negro suburb of Claysville, yesterday morning about ten o'clock brought his pistol into play and for a time made things lively in that locality. Garrett, it is said, had been drinking, and fired his revolver through the door of the building in which the patients were quartered. One bullet passed through the clothing of Mag Clay, a negress. He was arrested by Patrolman George Judy and Deputy Sheriff W. G. McClintock and lodged in jail.

"SLUMBERLAND" TO BE PRESENTED HERE IN MARCH

"Slumberland," a mammoth musical was discovered and Villa at once organized extravaganza with a cast of about presented two nights in Paris the second week in March, probably at the Grand Opera House.

This is a stupendous musical play that Prof. Hendricks has arranged to give here for the benefit of a school fund. A New York producer is already in the city, and will commence rehearsals Tuesday at the High School auditorium. "Slumberland" is not a children's play as a great number of our talented young ladies and gentlemen are required in the cast, together with crowds of little folks in singing and dancing ensembles. The children will rehearse in the afternoon and adults at night.

The first rehearsal of "grown-ups" is called for Tuesday night, and all the young folks of the city are invited to meet at the school and assume one of the parts in the play.

GUN TOTERS MAY EXPECT LIMIT IN POLICE COURT

Gun toters may expect the limit in the police court of this city, if they are caught, as the presiding judge, E. B. January, has declared that the violators of the concealed weapon laws may expect no leniency on the part of the court.

This was made evident yesterday morning when a fine of $100 and thirty days' jail sentence was imposed on James Stevenson, a negro, who was arrested Saturday by Chief of Police Fred Link. When taken into custody Stevenson had on his person a young cannon. The weapon was a forty-five calibre Colt's revolver measuring fourteen inches. The barrel was seven and one-half inches in length and the weapon weighed three and one-half pounds.

Stevenson was taken up on suspicion of being implicated in a robbery and when searched the weapon was found. It developed at his trial yesterday that he had no connection with the offense, and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed against him.

At this time it is said that there are upwards of one hundred and fifty negroes employed by the Louisville & Nashville railroad, or in the railroad construction camps, who are out of employment, and the railroad company refusing to give them transportation to Alabama a number of them claim they will stay in this section.

It is said by the police officials that these negroes are of the most undesirable class, and almost without exception the possess firearms and frequently carry them. It is the purpose of the officials to make an effort to rid the community of this class or break them from carrying concealed weapons, and every one brought into police court on this charge will be given the full extent both in fines and in jail sentences.

The newspapers of to-day are newer and better than those of other days. But they have their faults. A dishwasher in a hash house can always get her picture on the front page by suing a garbage wagon driver for $50.00 for breach of promise.

EDITH THAYER PLEASES LARGE CROWDS AT EVANSVILLE

CONFEDERATE VETERAN DIES AFTER ATTACK OF PNEUMONIA

The News yesterday morning received the following dispatch from Morris R. Levi, dramatic editor of the Journal-News, of Evansville, Ind., in regard to the performance of "The Firefly," in which Miss Edna Thayer is starring, and which will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House in this city, next Thursday evening:

"Edith Thayer, a fascinating mite of an actress, with a voice operatic in quality, lighted a path for herself straight into the regard of Evansville theatre-goers today when she appeared at the Wells Bijou in the title role of 'The Firefly.' One would hardly expect such volume and sweetness of tone from such a tiny body as Miss Thayer injects into the melodious score Rudolf Fleim has provided as a musical setting for 'The Firefly.' A pleasant story of an Italian street singer, whose vivacity and voice won her not only a career but a lesser half. Seconding Miss Thayer is Maxfield Moree, comedian-in-chief, whose Richard Carlesque crotteries are scattered throughout the two acts and the prologue. Paul Verinon, a capable character player, with a robust singing voice, makes an admirable Herr Franc, and the cast in general is adequate to the demands made upon it. The dancing is in good hands, with Bert Wheeler and Irene Samsel in the principal numbers, while in the score 'Sympathy,' the song cast in waltz time that has enjoyed national popularity, and a score or others insure a pleasant performance."

NEGRO CHARGED WITH FORGERY IS HELD TO THE GRAND JURY

Fisher Williams, a colored boy, who was arrested last Thursday by Chief of Police Fred Link, on a charge of forgery was yesterday held to the grand jury in police court. It is alleged that Williams forged the name of Holt Henry to eight checks and succeeded in obtaining money from a number of Paris merchants to the extent of $48.

John Augustine Eastin, generally known as Gus Eastin, a Confederate veteran who was one of the five survivors of Capt. John B. Castleman's original company of Morgan's men, and who was widely known as a turban and was a wealthy and prominent citizen of Lexington, died Friday evening at 5:30 o'clock at the residence of his grand-niece, Mrs. Nelson H. Smith, in Lexington, where he had been making his home.

Mr. Eastin was 79 years of age, and death was due to pneumonia, from which he had been ill for two weeks. Mr. Eastin was never married, but is survived by three nephews, William A. J. J. and T. B. Eastin, all of Lexington; three nieces, Mrs. Lucy Veal, Mrs. Mary Barnaby, and Mrs. Susan Appleton; a grand-nephew, George Chick, and a grand-niece, Mrs. Smith, these also of Lexington. Mr. Eastin had accumulated a handsome estate and for several years had withdrawn from active business, giving much of his leisure to enjoying social life. He was deeply devoted to his old companions-in-arms of Morgan's command and especially of the old company of which Captain, now General John B. Castleman, led to the war. Only four of the old company, including General Castleman, are now living, and at his old commander's request Mr. Eastin recently sent a photograph of the four other survivors to Gen. Castleman, at Louisville.

For many years Mr. Eastin raced with marked success, his stable being run under the name of Eastin & Larrabee, his partner being a very wealthy miner of Montana. Among the great horses which carried their colors were Poet Scout, Ben Holliday and Kinley Mack.

The funeral was held at the grave in the Lexington cemetery Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

COLUMBIA THEATRE CLOSED TO UNDERGO REPAIRS

The Columbia Theatre closed Saturday night for ten days, during which time it will undergo extensive repairs, which will make it one of the most complete in this section of the State. A large force of carpenters was employed yesterday morning in tearing out the old floor, and the new one which will be put in will be lowered. In addition to this the interior will be attractively decorated and many new appliances installed.

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

THEATRICAL.

Richard Hawes Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held its regular monthly meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon. In the absence of Mrs. William G. Talbot Mrs. John Connell acted as president. Considerable business of importance to the Chapter was transacted and papers were read by Mrs. J. D. Burnbaugh and Mrs. John C. Bedford, the latter being on the life and recent death of J. S. Cunningham, editor of The Veteran, the organ of Confederate organizations, which is published at Nashville, Tenn. The Chapter sent a contribution to the Arlington memorial.

Some men spend half their time getting in bed and the other in a squealing about it.

NAVEN WILL IS BROKEN IN SCOTT CIRCUIT COURT

The jury returned a verdict in the Scott Circuit Court Saturday afternoon, finding the document purporting to be the last will and testament of Bridget Naven, not to be her will. The will was probated in the Scott county court, but a contest was made by the sisters and brothers of Miss Naven.

The testatrix gave all her property, valued at about $10,000, to John C. Cain, of Lexington. The will was contested on the grounds that the testatrix had been unduly influenced by Cain, and that she gave her property to a stranger instead of her own brothers and sisters.

Attorneys Robert C. Talbot, of Paris, and Robert B. Franklin, of Lexington, represented the contestants.

SCOTT COUNTY LOCAL OPTION ELECTION VOID

Circuit Judge Stout, in a decision handed down in the Scott Circuit Court, Saturday, declared the last local option election void and of no effect.

The "wets" contested the validity of the election on the ground that the call for the election was not upon petition of twenty-five per cent of the voters in each precinct.

The petitions as originally prepared contained the statutory number of signers, but afterward the "wets" succeeded in inducing a sufficient number to withdraw their names to destroy the effectiveness of the petitions and this technicality is responsible for the decision rendered by Judge Stout.

The "drys" will immediately prepare for another contest and allege that there will be a greater number of petitioners this time than ever before, as many business men now favor local prohibition.

"The Firefly."

Miss Edith Thayer, her voice even more beautiful than when she was identified with Oscar Hammerstein's Grand Opera Co., and her stage presence still typified by a wonderful and tireless energy, will make her appearance in the new Haubach-Friml comedy opera, "The Firefly," at the Paris Grand Opera House, Thursday evening, Feb. 26, under the direction of Arthur Hammerstein.

"The Firefly" is a realistic and joyous stage dream, a varying spectacle of radiant beauty and entrancing music, and there are no dull moments. When captivating songs do not engage the attention witty lines, praiseworthy acting, well-executed dances, humorous and sometimes spectacular situations follow in such rapid succession as to hold interest throughout.

It has been several years since a light opera of the "Firefly" type has been produced with such unity. The unusual feature of this production is that although chorus ensembles and musical numbers are frequent they dovetail into the plot naturally without the jarring effects that frequently mar musical plays.

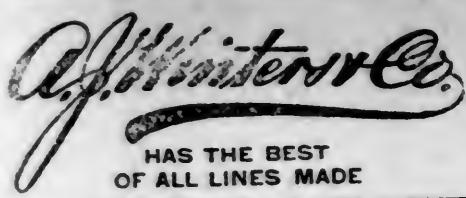

"The Firefly" has been written to fit Miss Thayer's voice—a fact that gives her many opportunities to display her vocal abilities. This has been accomplished however without the effect of having reduced the importance in other roles in order to give her a starring vehicle.

PARIS GIRLS DEFEAT HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS OF MAYSVILLE

The girls' basket ball team of the Paris High School went to Maysville Friday night, where they defeated the High School girls of that city by a score of 31 to 12. The game was easy for the local girls, who took a good lead in the opening half, and without great difficulty held their opponents safe.

Two former members of the High School team starred in the game between the girls of the University of Louisville and the State University of Lexington. They were Misses Olive Taul and Elsie Heller, both of Paris, who are members of the State team. The score stood 20 to 19 in favor of State University. Miss Taul is credited with putting up the best game during the contest.

CONSTRUCTION HANDS MUST KEEP AWAY FROM PARIS

The appearance of a negro with a well-developed case of small-pox on the street here Friday night aroused the officials to prevent a recurrence of the conditions which prevailed here several weeks ago.

As a precaution all of the negroes in the railroad construction camps around this city have been ordered out of town by the police, and officers have been instructed by Chief of Police Link to arrest any who may appear on the streets, and enter a charge of loitering against them.

Most of the men employed at the construction camps are Alabama negroes, and the small-pox which appeared here several weeks ago has been traced to them. The officers think by keeping this class within the limits of their camp, they can prevent a spread of the disease into the city. The negro afflicted with the disease was taken to the pest house.

—Mrs. George Stuart entertained with a six-hand euchre party Friday afternoon at her home on Mt. Airy avenue. The guests were served with a delicious luncheon and the games were enjoyed at six tables. The prize for the highest score, a brass fern dish, was awarded to Mrs. J. W. Bacon, and the lone hand prize was won by Miss Mamie Holladay, and was a wicker flower holder. The party was one of the prettiest of the week, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests.

LORETTA HINTON CARTER DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS.

After an illness of about ten days Little Loretta Hinton Carter, aged four years, the bright and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Carter, Jr., died at the home of her parents, in East Paris, yesterday morning about 8:30 o'clock. Death was due to arsenic poisoning.

The child, who was the second of the household, became ill several days ago, but her condition was not thought to be of a serious nature until Sunday afternoon when it assumed a critical stage. Everything known to medical science was done to prolong the little life, and four physicians were called in attendance Sunday, devoted every effort to stay the hand of death but without result.

The little girl was one of the most attractive in the city and for one of her years was exceedingly bright. She was the idol of her parents, a favorite with the neighbors and playmates.

The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents in this their darkest hour.

The funeral services will be held at the residence Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and will be conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis. Burial in the Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers will be Joseph Varden, Jas. B. Wilson, John Leer and Clark Leer.

LOOKING AT EGGS THROUGH A KNOT HOLE.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside a contributor tells, as follows, how he candles his eggs:

"A knot hole a little over one inch in diameter in the sunny side of our barn serves as a very satisfactory egg tester for duck, geese and hen eggs. With the doors closed and the windows blinded the room is quite dark, and by placing the egg close to the opening when the sun is shining brightly I am able to determine, after five days of incubation, the fertile from the infertile."

HELD UP AND ROBBED OF $70 ALMOST INBROAD DAYLIGHT

John Pindell, a Louisville & Nashville employee, was held up Saturday evening, about 6:00 o'clock on South Main street by two negroes who relieved him of $70. The matter was reported to the police and a thorough search was made for the men guilty of the hold-up, but without result.

According to the story of Pindell, who resides on Nineteenth street, he was coming down street to pay some of his accounts with the money. As he passed a dark place a negro, he said, stepped out and grabbed him by the arm, while another presented a revolver in his face and demanded his money.

The money was handed over with some hesitancy, but not until one of the men threatened to kill him if he did not accede to their demands. He was then threatened with death if he made any effort to inform the police until they had escaped. They then went in the direction of the Louisville & Nashville railroad yards and were soon lost to view.

In a few minutes after the robbery had been committed Chief of Police Link and Patrolman King went to the scene of the crime and made a thorough search, but without finding a clue that would lead to the apprehension of the guilty parties. Until midnight Saturday all the outgoing freight trains were searched in the hope of landing the men, who it was thought might try to escape in that manner. Pindell declares that he would know both men if he should see them again. One negro who was arrested on suspicion, and who had a large revolver and $40 on his person, proved not to be one of the men wanted. He was held on a concealed weapon charge.

MARCH 1 WILL BRING OUT MANY MOVERS

With the first of March rapidly approaching, the streets and county roads will soon be filled with wagons and vans moving the personal effects of hundreds of tenants and others seeking new homes. Many Bourbon farms have changed ownership during the fall and winter, possession to be given the purchasers March 1, consequently these land owners, as well as a large number of tobacco tenants, with a desire to improve their prospects, will be moving in every direction before time to sow tobacco beds, prepare for spring plowing, and the many other kinds of work that must be done early this season.

FINDS RELATIVES AFTER A LONG SEARCH

Mrs. Lillian Davis, of New Orleans, wife of J. F. Davis, southern manager for the J. W. Dowde Machine Knife Works, who is now visiting her great-aunt, Mrs. E. M. Batson, in Winchester, will soon meet for the first time several of her half-brothers and sisters. Mrs. Davis, although forty-seven years of age, and knowing that her relatives were alive, has never seen them.

Mrs. Davis attributes the discovery of the whereabouts of her half-brothers and sisters to the insertion of a small advertisement in a local paper at Cumberland Gap, Tenn. She has been searching, inquiring and writing in regard to lost relatives for many years. She will go first to see her half brother, William Hall, of Millville, near Frankfort. From there she will go to Philadelphia, where her half sister, Mrs. Rachael Wolf, is living. Mrs. Wolf is a wealthy and prominent woman of the Quaker City, and her daughter was recently married to a nobleman of Austria-Hungary.

Six of the fourteen brothers are now living, four of whom Mrs. Davis has located.

The old-fashioned tads who used to stay home of nights and play dominoes and checkers may have missed a lot of fun, but they seldom suffered from locomotor ataxia.

FIVE MINUTE CURE IF STOMACH IS BAD

"Pape's Diaepsin" is Quickest, Surest Indigestion Cure Known

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diaepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead and ferments and sour and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diaepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it. (adv)

REMARKABLE RECORD OF PRESIDENT WILSON.

He Has Won Thirty-One Big Victories Within the Past Ten Months.

A compilation of what has been accomplished since Mr. Wilson assumed office on March 4 was made and issued by the Democratic National Committee. Under the heading, "Performances," these thirty-one items for achievement are stated:

"For the first time in a generation the enactment of a tariff law in which no special interest or lobby had any hand."

"The enactment of a currency reform act which meets the enthusiastic approval of citizens of all classes."

"The elimination of the lobby from the halls of Congress and the seat of government."

"The perfection and operation of the first two amendments to the Constitution since 1870, namely, the imposition of an income tax, and providing for the election of Senators by the people."

"The peace program of Secretary Bryan, for the sole purpose of divesting political conflicts of their inflammable character."

"By his action in appearing at the Capitol and addressing Congress in person, ending government by secret conferences and private arrangements."

"The action of the President in bringing together representatives of capitol and labor, resulting in the prompt passage of the employers' arbitration act."

"The President's 'constitution of peace' policy, resulting in voluntary breaking of interlocking directorates."

"The action of the Secretary of the Treasury in depositing $50,000,000 of crop moving funds in the West and South."

"The President's forcing on the attention of the country the necessity for a system of farm credits."

"The granting of modified self-government to the Filipinos."

"The divorceement of the government from affiliations with the New York financial interests that were parties to the six-power loan to China."

"The elimination of the Telephone Trust's control of the Western Union Telegraph Company."

"The policy of 'diplomatic postponement,' which has prevented precipitate action in disputes with Great Britain, Japan and Mexico."

"The action of the Postmaster General in making the postal service self-sustaining."

"The development of the parcel post system."

"The change in the rules which brought an end to Gannon methods."

"Extension of the pure food act to meat inspection."

"The inauguration by the Department of Agriculture of a system of markets."

"The action of the Secretary of the Navy, in forcing the Armor Plate Trust to submit bids in competition for armor plate and iron and steel."

"The action of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs in giving the protection of the law to Indian children."

"An extension of the special delivery system by the Postmaster General to the parcel post."

"The action of the Secretary of Agriculture in extending the work of that department to the home life of the farmer."

"As the result of prosecution under the anti-trust laws, this administration has brought about a dissolution of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific merger, and caused the surrender by the Pennsylvania railroad of its large holdings in the Baltimore & Ohio."

"The action of the President in emphasizing the necessity of a primary system for the selection of nominees for the Presidency."

"The action of the administration in sending representatives to the International Congress in London, for the better protection and safety of passengers and property at sea."

"The early enactment of the Alaskan railway bill, already passed by the Senate."

"The action of the Secretary of the Navy in putting into effect a system of academic, vocational and technical instruction for enlisted men."

"The prosecution of a number of combinations, resulting in adjusting differences and bringing their businesses within the law."

The desire for authority is very frequently as misleading as the small boy's hope that he will grow up to be a policeman so that he can arrest the teacher.

EL PASO, Feb. 19.—Maximo Castillo, the Mexican bandit charged with responsibility for the Cumbre tunnel disaster, in which ten Americans and forty-one others lost their lives, was captured thirty-eight miles south of Hatchita, N. M., Tuesday, by American troops.

With the bandit were six of his followers. According to the dispatch from Captain White, they surrendered without a fight. They will be brought here.

Castillo, to avoid a range of mountains on the Mexican side, made a detour which brought him on the American side. Captain White was on the watch, having received information yesterday from Walter McCormick, American manager of the Las Palomas ranch, on the Mexican side, that the much-wanted man was in the vicinity.

Captain White telegraphed by army wireless to General Scott for instructions, and was ordered to arrest the bandit should he put foot on American soil.

Whether the prisoner shall be surrendered to the rebels is a legal question which remains to be settled. If this is done there is no doubt he will be executed for the Cumbre disaster. He is not charged with any crime on this side.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 19.—United States Senator Thomas Pryor Gore late yesterday was exonerated of charges of improper conduct by a verdict in his favor rendered in district court here in the suit for $50,000 damages instituted by Mrs. Minnie Bond, of Oklahoma City.

The verdict was returned ten minutes after the case was given to the jury. Only one ballot was taken. "We find," the jury stated, "the evidence submitted by the plaintiff entirely insufficient upon which to base a suit and that said evidence exonerates the defendant."

In his answer Senator Gore denied the charges and in a counter suit alleged the suit was instigated by political opponents. Testifying in his own defense Senator Gore characterized the allegations as "infamous lies" and asserted that at an opportune moment Robertson and Fitzpatrick, two of Mrs. Bond's witnesses, appeared in the room.

When she is thirteen she wants her skirts longer. When she is twenty she starts making them shorter.

WEATHER BUREAU TO PREPARE FOR OPENING OF PANAMA CANAL

In order to protect the shipping that will use the Panama Canal, the Weather Bureau of the Department of Agriculture has asked for authority to extend its weather service to the Caribbean Sea so as to obtain complete meteorological reports from 16 stations. In the belief that this whole region will become a great highway for vessels after the opening of the canal, the Weather Bureau wishes to restore certain features of the comprehensive weather service established throughout the West Indies at the time of the Spanish War in the interest of the fleets and transports.

One of the new stations would be a fully equipped station of the Weather Bureau similar to those within the United States, and located in the Canal Zone itself. Substations would be maintained at appropriate points along the canal for use in the proper dissemination of Weather Bureau information. Each station would make two observations a day, at 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. In addition to the land station the Weather Bureau wishes also to provide for the extension of marine reports by wireless from vessels plying the waters of this region, so as to provide the safest possible information covering the entire Caribbean Sea.

The weather observations in the Caribbean Sea, it is believed, will be of special service in connection with the various storm warnings now communicated through the station signals and by wireless to all shippers in the Western Atlantic and the Gulf district. In these storm warnings will be used special reports from the entire West Indies.

The Weather Bureau has also asked to be allowed to continue as a regular feature the seismological observations now being made by the War Department to supply information as to earth movements likely to affect canal construction. The Bureau believes that maintenance of these observations is of great importance and has asked authority of Congress to make seismological observations in the Canal Zone a regular part of its work.

News Over the State

Marshal Serves Jail Sentence

Jackson—T. C. ("Tomcat") Davidson has resumed his duties as City Marshal after being off duty for ten days while serving a sentence in jail for carrying concealed weapons. The offense was committed last year, and Davidson was indicted by the grand jury and fined $25 and costs and ten days in jail. The fine was immediately paid, and a petition to the Governor was signed by a great many citizens, but was never presented.

Decision Reversed

Frankfort—Reversing the judgment of the Whitley Circuit Court in the case of Thomas Bowling, etc., against Mrs. Lewis Archer, the Appellate Court ordered a new trial. In this case Bowling killed Lewis Archer in Tennessee just over the line from Kentucky, in the town of Jellico.

Archer had been arrested by Tom Bowling, and conspiracy was charged. The Court held that Bowling had the right to arrest Archer in Kentucky, and Archer pulled Bowling into Tennessee as the arrest was made close to the line. In such a case it is held that the general rule of pursuit does not control.

Slide Ties Up Traffic

Carlisle—A big slide of earth and stone covered the track in a cut near Cowan Station, on the local branch of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, and tied up traffic for several hours. The slide was caused by the heavy rains.

Fire in Fayette

Lexington—Fire of unknown origin destroyed the general store of Perry Hazelwood, south of Athens, this county, entailing a loss of $4,000; insurance $2,000.

Declines Offer on Prison Board

Morehead—Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, to whom the Board of Prison Commissioners tendered the position of assistant superintendent of the State Reform School, has notified the board that she cannot accept the position, stating she had consecrated herself to the work among adult illiterates, who she conceives have greater need of her services, and that she cannot conscientiously abandon the work. She has declined numerous positions both in Kentucky and other States during the last few years in order to give her attention to this problem, which she says is one of the most important of State and National problems.

Child Seriously Burned

Crissle—Clarence B. Waugh, little son of George Waugh, a Nicholas county farmer, is reported to be in a very critical condition from burns about the face and body. The little fellow's clothing caught fire from a grate recently.

To Better Pulaski Roads

Soiners—County Judge Robert Jasper has called a special election to be held on April 17 for the purpose of voting on a bond issue of $300,000 to build pikes in Pulaski County. The question has been agitated for some time and the County Judge upon entering office went on record as favoring it. The members of the Fiscal Court are for it also, it is said. The commissioners to handle the money and supervise the construction will be elected at the same time.

Smooth Pavement

Versailles—The City Council is working on a plan to have Main street paved with vitrified brick or asphalt for a distance of three blocks in the business center, from Broadway on the north to Morgan street on the south, the expense to be borne one-third by the city and two-thirds by the property-owners on these streets. The approximate cost, it is believed, will be between $20,000 and $25,000.

Never Arrived at College

Laporte, Ind.—George Badis, who left his home in Bardwell, Ky., five weeks ago to attend college at Valparaiso, who has been missing for five weeks and his mother, who asked the aid of the Valparaiso police in finding him, fears he has been foully dealt with. The boy's trunk arrived at the college, but persistent search has failed to find any trace of the young man, and his mother is nearly crazed with anxiety.

Badis left home with considerable money in his possession, and this causes the authorities to fear that murder may have been committed.

Some of these days a good listener is going to get into politics and his popularity will show up the good talkers.

If some of the Princesses could cook as well as they can Tango there would not be so many divorces in 1916.

Some of the girls are afraid you won't know how they are built, so they have taken a reef in the skirt right below the sitting down place. Well, if they can stand it, we can.

NOTICE FROM HEALTH BOARD.

Physicians and heads of families are respectfully referred to Section 2060 of the Kentucky Statutes, which provides as follows:

"Section 2060—* * * * * Any physician or head of a family who shall fail or refuse to report to the local Board of Health in cases of cholera, smallpox, yellow fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria, and other epidemic diseases as provided for in Section 2055 of the act mentioned in the title of this act, shall be fined not less than five dollars for each day he neglects or refuses to report. (Section as amended by Act of March 3, 1894.)

Please take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa.—"When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.

Women Have Been Telling Women
for forty years how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. This accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It will pay you to do so. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

"Who is that big stiff in the middle of the street who cusses everybody that passes when he is making chalk marks?" asked the Grouch.

"Him? Why he's a civil engineer," replied the Wise Guy.

"The community which wants to eliminate commercialized vice had much better expend its energies on the men who make possible the "red-light" districts of our cities than on the women who are their victims!" declares Mrs. Irving C. Moller, Chairman of the Committee on the Elimination of Commercialized Vice, referring to the situation in Washington resulting from the passage of the Kenyon "red-light" bill which aims to eliminate the segregated district in the District of Columbia.

We are saving time. People used to believe they had gained great knowledge of real life when they had read a novel. Then we thought the same thing after seeing a play. Now we get the impression from three-quarters of an hour at the moving picture show.

Enrique Flores, he said, had been promised his release.

El Paso Citizens Indignant.

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 23.—A storm of indignation broke along the border Friday, when it became known that William S. Benton, a British subject and wealthy landowner in Mexico had been executed by rebels in Juarez after he had made a protest to General Francisco Villa about alleged depredations of the Constitutionalists.

A mass meeting was held that night and resolutions adopted censuring the State Department at Washington for alleged suppression of the consular report of the Benton case, and calling on Congress to demand from the Department of State a full record of all alleged crimes and outrages against foreigners in Mexico.

The meeting came as the climax of a day of excitement caused by news of the death of Benton. The meeting was first called for Cleveland Square, but Mayor Kelley in a letter to the mer Gov. George Curry, of New Mexico, asked him to rent a hall, as he regarded an open meeting as dangerous. The Mayor said he would suppress any attempt to hold the meeting in the open. A theater was rented, and messengers turned a crowd from Cleveland Square to the building.

RURAL SCHOOL EXTENSION BILL PASSES THE HOUSE.

FRANKFORT, Feb. 23.—Before the joint adjournment until tomorrow the House Saturday passed the Coke bill extending the rural public school term to eight months and designating $50 a month as the maximum salary for teachers with first-class certificates and $40 a month for teachers with sec-class.

This was followed by the passage of the Duffy joint resolution asking Congress to investigate the alleged "unlawful conspiracy" of fire insurance companies doing business in Kentucky.

By a vote of 29 to 1, the Senate passed the Helm parole bill, which gives the Board of Penitentiary Commissioners the right to grant paroles with the approval of the Governor, and the Helm indeterminate sentence bill as amended by the Senate was passed by a unanimous vote.

Senator Knight's bill, placing express companies under the control of the State railroad commission was made a special order for Wednesday.
